

THE ELECTION.

An Unusually Large Vote
Polled in Arkansas.

Liensing of Saloons the Principal
Issue in Many Counties.

The Democrats Claim the Election of
Col. Jones, Governor, by 45,000 Plurality—Democrats and Republicans Clash in Some Counties.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 8.—The election held in this state Monday was for all state, judicial and county offices, including two-thirds of the legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the democratic national committee.

As far as heard from, the election throughout the state passed off quietly, and an unusually large vote was polled. The question of liquor saloons was the principal issue in the majority of the counties. Here, in Little Rock, it was the issue of the day. The prohibitionists, or anti-liquor advocates, were defeated by large majority.

At the democratic headquarters the election of Col. James K. Jones, the democratic candidate for governor, is claimed by 45,000 plurality. Chairman Cooper, of the republican committee, disputes the claim, basing his estimates upon reports received late Monday evening. He says a large percentage of the increased vote was polled by Negroes. Of the 50,000 polled in the state, 45,000 are held by Negroes, 15,000 more than were held by the Negroes two years ago.

Owing to the large number of counties beyond the reach of telegraph and telephone facilities, the returns from Monday's election are slow in reaching the headquarters. Semi-official returns received from 14 of the principal counties of the state give Jones (dem.) free silver candidate for governor, a plurality of 18,000.

The populists scratched Filer, their candidate for governor, and almost solidly for Jones as did many of the sound money democrats. The prohibition vote throughout the state shows a marked increase.

Several clashes occurred in the doubtful counties between the democrats and populists. Notably was the case at Clinton, Van Buren county, the place where congressman Blumrose was assaulted last week. Clinton is an important county, and it is possible to learn full particulars, but it is thought here that no serious results come of the reported riot.

White county, the birthplace of the populists, has gone democratic, while Newton, Sevier and Madison have rallied up their usual republican majorities for legislative and county officers.

Several counties received from six candidates give James K. Jones a majority as follows: Miller (Texarkana) 560; Phillips (Heleena) 1,000; Woodruff, business headquarters of populists, 1,000; Lincoln, 800; Lafayette, 500; Sharpe, 1,700. If these majorities are kept up throughout the state Jones and the native democratic ticket will receive 60,000 majority.

TRAGEDY IN RICHMOND.
James E. Wimmer Sues to Death of G. Thalhimer for the Betrayal of His Daughter.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 8.—A terrible tragedy was enacted early Monday night on Broad street, the principal retail business thoroughfare of the city. James E. Wimmer, aged 46, a native of Wythe county and a blacksmith working at the Richmond locomotive works, stabbed and killed a well-known liquor merchant, son of Charles Thalhimer, a well-known liquor merchant. The cause of the homicide was the alleged betrayal of Wimmer's partially blind daughter by young Thalhimer. Wimmer, who was hunting for Thalhimer, came up with him in the street, in the hold of him and after stabbing him in three places, threw him off. Thalhimer walked about a half block and then fell dead. Wimmer sought a policeman and surrendered himself.

Hunting for Headquarters.
CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—W. D. Hyman, chairman of the national democratic committee, arrived in Chicago Monday night from Indianapolis and registered at the Palmer house. The special purpose of his visit is to select headquarters for the annual legislative convention which has the Palmer and Buckner ticket in charge. He said he had been detained in Indianapolis arranging for the dual notification meeting to be held in Louisville next Saturday. Headquarters will be chosen in a day or two and the Palmer house will probably be the place.

Accidentally Shot by a Policeman.
CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—James Linchert, a little boy five years old, was killed Monday afternoon from a bullet fired by a policeman. The boy was playing with a gun when he was shot in the chest. He died at the hospital.

Deadly Wound to the Head.
COVINGTON, Ky., Sept. 8.—Nadand, of Covington, easily won the road race from Lexington, Ky., to Covington, on Monday. The start was made at 9 o'clock. The winner reached Covington at 8:30. The time was much better than expected.

Deadly Wound to the Head.
LEICESTER, Pa., Sept. 8.—Eight stores here were burglarized Friday night. It was today discovered that the crime was the work of a bad gang of gamblers, two members of which were caught and jailed Monday. They are Edward Grim and Robert Wilson.

Shot and Killed by a Woman.
DENVER, Sept. 8.—John Combs, a young married man, went to the house of a Mrs. Mills, and was denied admission. He was then shot and killed by the woman.

Shot and Killed by a Woman.
LONDON, Sept. 8.—A British official, who was a member of the British cabinet, was shot and killed by a woman.

Shot and Killed by a Woman.
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The officers of the steamship Albatross, which arrived Monday, refused to make any statement concerning the arrest of one of the steamer's crew members (Hague) by a British official, and thereafter, beyond the fact that his passport was not correct.

EARL LI,

The Chinese Ambassador, Leaves
Our Country for Canada.

The Great Statesman Pays a Visit to the Toronto Exposition.

It Was the Object of the Most Intense
Interest—The crowd at the Exhibition
Estimated at Fully 100,000—
Li Leaves for the Pacific Coast.

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—Earl Li Hung Chang and his numerous retinue reached Toronto late Monday afternoon by a special train, accompanied by Sir Henry Jekyll, representing the Dominion government; W. G. Parmelee, the Chinese commissioner, and Mr. Horsey, all of whom go through with him to the coast. Li did not come into the city proper at all, but stood off at the industrial fair, which he inspected thoroughly. When the train reached Exhibition station, Earl Li was received by President Wilton and the directors of the exposition. Mr. Wilton briefly welcomed the distinguished visitor, and expressed the hope that he would have a pleasant visit, to which the viceroy replied through his interpreter, expressing great pleasure at visiting the exhibition. Three cheers were then given for the viceroy.

The great Chinese magnate went through the exhibition in a hurry and under great difficulties, owing to the enormous crowd, estimated at fully 100,000 people. From the moment of his arrival on the grounds until his train started away the great statesman was the object of the most intense interest. Earl Li was presented by President McArthur, of the Manufacturers' association, with a maple leaf in gold.

A great many notable visitors were then presented, including Sir McKensie Bowell, Sir Charles Tupper, Charles H. Tupper, Hon. C. E. Foster, Hon. Frank Smith, Hon. John Dryden and others.

At 6 o'clock the train was again boarded and the party started for North bay, enroute for the Pacific coast.
